Badges for merit & friendship

Boy Scout Kyle Adams earned his basketry merit badge by occasionally coming over to hold the reeds as his father, Keith Adams, wove the basket. Although his father did most of the work, 22-year-old Kyle helped out as best he could — and earned the badge. Adams is autistic, and like all of the other young men in Boy Scout Troop 419, he does things a little differently. Renton-based Troop 419 is one of few special-needs Boy Scout troops in the region. Started 10 years...

Boy Scout flies past Eagle rank

Shane Moravsik of Parsippany just keeps on achieving. The Parsippany Hills High School senior, a member of Boy Scout Troop 173 in Parsippany, recently received his Eagle Scout rank with gold palm at a Court of Honor ceremony. A Boy Scout continuing to advance after earning the rank of Eagle Scout achieves an Eagle rank with palms. A bronze palm is earned by meeting a three-month tenure requirement, a leadership requirement and earning five additional merit badges. The gold palm...

Scout may be youngest to net all 120 badges

ELK RIDGE -- When Christopher Haskell receives his small boat sailing merit badge on Wednesday, he will have earned all 120 badges offered by the Boy Scouts of America. A national spokeswoman says that at the tender age of 13, Haskell may be the youngest Scout ever to achieve that goal. Renee Fairrer, associate director of marketing and communications for the Boy Scouts of America, said she's interviewed hundreds of Boy Scouts for news stories and granted hundreds of...

Dolphin's death still undetermined SEA BRIGHT- Authorities say they need to do more testing to determine what killed a dolphin on New Jersey's Navesink River. The dolphin is one of about 15 that have been spotted in the river since June and is the third known to die there. It was found dead on Thursday. National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration spokeswoman Teri Frady says that the animal was an older female with an empty stomach. She says the same

Scout shows you can win 'em all

In the 91 years that the Boy Scouts of America have been around, fewer than a dozen young men have earned every merit badge possible. Add Jared Thatcher's name to that list. On June 4, just days before his 18th birthday, the Independence Eagle Scout was handed his 120th and final Boy Scout merit badge, for cinematography. To earn the badge, he produced a 40-minute film of the Truman High School girls swim team. "I'm sad that..."

SCOUTS CEREMONY FOR EAGLES YOUNG AND OLD \ FEWER THAN 2% OF ALL BOY SCOUTS EARN EAGLE STATUS. TONIGHT, 42 NORTHLAND TEENS WILL RECEIVE THE GROUP'S ULTIMATE HONOR

They've passed all their tests and earned all their merit badges. Tonight, 42 Northland teens will be honored for receiving one of the Boy Scouts' ultimate honors. They'll be cloaked as Eagle Scouts in a ceremony designed to remind them that they can accomplish great things. Sitting next to each of the young Scouts at the banquet will be an adult Scout, someone who became an Eagle Scout years ago and then went on to become a community leader....

Based on the number of merit badges available between the years 1921 and 1928 it is assumed that Allan earned 80 merit badges.

TENACIOUS BADGER PATRICK HENRY HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATE HAS EARNED 81 MERIT BADGES IN SCOUTING

There isn't a specific sewing merit badge for Boy Scouts, at least not yet. (Could it soon replace the now-defunct stalking merit badge?) "If there was, I'm sure I'd have it -- after sewing on all of these," quipped Daniel Hingley of Rockville as he looked at his jam-packed Scout sash. The Patrick Henry High School graduate just earned his 81st merit badge -- drafting -- which entitles him to a quite-rare fourth...
