Local Eagle Scout Honored at Ceremony

Posted by Ronal At Hilbig December 18, 2012 Flag as inappropriate

On Monday, December 17 at 7:30 pm, Boy Scout Troop 1115, chartered out of Immanuel Bible Church in Springfield Virginia, honored Eagle Scout Gerry Souser with the "Ideal Scout" sculpture for earning all 134 merit badges, which the scouting program offers. This significant achievement places Souser among the precious few who have ever accomplished such a feat. Only about 200 of the millions of boys involved nationally in scouting over the past 102 years have earned all possible merit badges. To put this accomplishment in perspective, "only" 21 merit badges are needed to become an Eagle Scout.

Several Northern Virginia BSA district leaders, including CEO and President Les Baron and Chair Holly Brown, were expected to be present during the cerenmony in Imman uel's Family Life Center (gym).
